Term 1 2020, pack #06 has 10 titles.

OUR PICK: Highly Recommended

Run Rebel

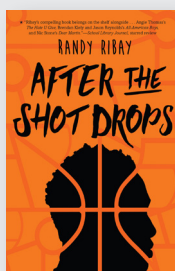

Deep-thinking, beautifully written, brimming with themes and issues – this is a brilliant read, all the more accessible as it is written as a verse novel. This means that there is no extraneous description and the story is laid bare. Amber Rai's parents hardly speak English and are unable to navigate Western society. Amber desperately wants to fit in with her peers but has to juggle with family demands that clash with what she wants from life.

This is more suitable for older readers due to issues such as domestic violence.

This is an easy-reading adventure story, the first for younger readers, by this bestselling popular author. It stars Jack Courtney – but at age 14. Basically – this is a survival story set in the African jungle. It is marketed for teen readers but could easily be read by year 7s.

Only Mostly Devastated

"Grease" for the current world! Will has a fling over the summer, but when situations cause him to relocate to his new friend's school – things are not what he expected. This is a charming "boy-meets-boy, boy-loses-boy" romance written with lots of sensitivity and a fair bit of humour. More suitable for Upper Secondary readers.

Anna K

If you loved the movie Crazy Rich Asians, then you will love Anna K. This really is Anna Karenina for modern times (but do not expect that heartrendingly beautiful writing). This is a modern take and it actually does bring in all the betrayal, infidelity, and heartbreak of the original plus lots of bling and glamour. It is cleverly worked and is a very enjoyable read.

King of Scars

Hurray! A new book by Leigh Bardugo and this is the first of a duology, set in the wonderfully imagined world of Grisha. It is a super read – complex, dark and sometimes violent. Lots of political intrigue, magic, love and betrayal. It is a great read – but would, I feel, be enjoyed more by readers familiar with the former books in the series.

E-Boy 1

Warning – this is not stand-out literature. It is, however, a great book to entice non-reading (boys especially) students to try a novel. The story is fast-moving and quite far-fetched, about a teen being operated upon for a brain tumour. Due to an ill-timed electric surge he wakes from the op to find his brain is now part-computer.

Sasha's Secret

This is the third book in the Lost and Found series. Sasha seems to have it all – but things start to fall apart when her crippling anxiety begins to take over her life. This is a good read for year 7 readers.
